

Additional Staff for Directorate:-

The administrative control, operation and monitoring work of all schemes of Women Empowerment and Child Development are dealt by the Directorate, ICDS. The State Government has created additional posts in the department for which the State Government does the financing.