

Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act

Under Domestic Violence Act, women officers have been given preference to be nominated as Protection officer. In all the districts Non-Governmental Organisations have been selected as service providers. All district hospitals, Community and Primary Health centers and A.N.M. sub-centres have been nominated as Medical Facility centre. District level reviews and trainings are organised through Women Commission and Mahila Samakhya. Protection officers and Service Providers are trained by the Judicial Academy, Bhowali, Nainital.